S.K.H. YAN LAAP MEMORIAL PRIMARY SCHOOL ENGLISH NEWSLETTER

Welcome Back To School

WELCOME

On 2nd September 2019, Principal Yee led the school's opening ceremony, welcomed all of the P.2 - P.6 students back to school and said a big "Hello!" to all of our new P.1 students.

How do you feel about coming back to school?

Are you excited? What did you do in your summer break? Come and tell Mr Gavin and maybe he can write about it in the next issue of The English Express!

P.1 Orientation Day

The P.1 students all had a chance to meet

Mr Gavin and take part in an exciting English lesson. They acted out a special version of "The 3 Little Pigs" and voted on their favourite ending which was where the pigs escaped from the wolf.

The students were all very engaged and Mr Gavin said after the event, "This was my first chance to meet the Yan Laap Memorial students and I was super impressed by their English ability as well as their willingness to try. I can't wait to teach them more this year."

Mid-Autumn Festival School Event

On the evening of Thursday, 12th September, our school organised a Mid-Autumn Festival Party. It was an amazing event with musical performances by some former students as well as a very special performance by Principal Yee, her son and her daughter.

There were fun games. The children and their families ate lots of yummy food and shared the joyful occasion.

Meeting Our Native English Teachers

This year we have 3 new Native English Teachers. Our English Express Team interviewed them so we can all know more about them.

I enjoy running as well as reading and travelling. I like doing puzzles and playing board games, too.

What is the main difference between Hong Kong and your home town?
