May's School Day

It is May's bad day today. It is half past seven in the morning. May is still in bed because the clock is broken. She can't get up on time. Today Mum wakes May up. May is worried.

When she gets up, she says, 'I don't have time to eat breakfast. I need to get ready as fast as I can.' She wears the uniform quickly. She doesn't have breakfast.

After she puts on her school uniform, she carries her school bag and leaves her room. But her books and homework are on the desk. Last night, she played computer games until one o'clock in the morning. She didn't pack her school bag. She says, 'I can't be late again.' But she can't catch the school bus in the end.

Today, May is late for school. She goes into the classroom but she can't find her homework and books. The teacher is angry and scolds May. The teacher says, 'You need to see me during the recess.' May feels sad and regretful and she cries. She learns that she needs to sleep early.
