A Day in the Park

There is a school holiday today. It is hot and sunny. May goes to the park with her mum. She feels excited.

Then she walks to the swing and plays on the swing. May's mother meets Miss Chan in the park. They talk to each other. They talk about the school. When May's mother is talking, May leaves the swing. May does not tell her mother where she goes.

Suddenly, May's mother does not see May when she turns back her head. Her mother tries to look for May. She is scared and cries loudly.

After that, her mother dials 999 and calls the police. Miss Chan helps mum to find her. Miss Chan comes to help her. Her mother finds May in the end. Her mother is happy. She tells Mum she goes to the washroom. And now, she knows that her mum looks for her everywhere. she feels sorry. She learns that she must tell her mother before she walks away.
